

PET POLICY

Our accommodations allow pets of a maximum of 15 kg, with a maximum of 2 dogs per accommodation.

The accommodation of your pets carries a supplement of €10 / night and your friend will not be able to stay alone in the accommodation. Here we detail the conditions for staying with your pet.

The owner of the pet is fully responsible for any damage that may be caused. Any damage caused will be borne by the owner of the animal.

The owner must sign this policy as a sign of acceptance prior to arrival and present a credit card as a guarantee for the pet's access to the property. A charge of 1 cent will be made to verify the card. In the event that there are damages, a charge will be made on the card for the amount thereof.

The size of the pet cannot exceed 15 kg.

Pets cannot remain alone in the accommodation at any time and must be supervised by the owner at all times, preventing them from causing inconvenience to other users.

The owner is responsible for collecting droppings of his pet at all times. The use of bedding, pillows, towels, etc.... for the use of the pet is prohibited.

Pets are prohibited from getting on sofas and beds. The owner must bring the pet's usual rest space and food and drink containers. The client is responsible for the noises that the pets can make and they will make sure that the pets do not interrupt or affect the tranquility of other guests.

If La Volandera determines that the pet affects other clients of the complex, it may be requested at its absolute discretion that the pet be accommodated outside the complex. La Volandera reserves the right to terminate the accommodation contract if the pet bothers other clients of the complex, without the right to claim or compensation from the client and immediately.

A valid credit card number is required as a guarantee.

Thank you.
